

DRAFT — FOR SARAH'S REVIEW

Offer Letter

OptiMind Educational Strategies — prepared by Ruby Groves, Gemini Lane

Status · Draft   Last updated · Aug 16, 2026

|                 |                                                  |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| Candidate       | TBD — candidate name                             |
| Position        | Executive Function (EF) Specialist confirm title |
| Reports to      | Sarah Ritter, Founder                            |
| Compensation    | TBD — hourly/salary, amount                      |
| Schedule        | TBD — days/hours                                 |
| Start date      | TBD                                              |
| Employment type | At-will, W-2                                     |

Dear [Candidate Name],

On behalf of OptiMind Educational Strategies, I'm pleased to offer you the position of Executive Function (EF) Specialist, reporting to me directly.

This is an offer of at-will employment: either you or OptiMind may end the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause or notice, consistent with Maryland law.

Your day-to-day responsibilities are described in full in the Role Definition & Responsibilities document, which is provided alongside this letter as part of your onboarding materials.

Compensation & Schedule

Your starting compensation will be [TBD — confirm hourly/salary and amount], for an expected schedule of [TBD — confirm days/hours].

Start Date

Your anticipated start date is [TBD].

Conditions of Employment

This offer is contingent on your signing OptiMind's Employment Agreement and Confidentiality & Data-Handling Agreement, and on successful completion of a background check.

Please indicate your acceptance by signing and returning this letter by [TBD — deadline] . We're looking forward to having you on the team.

Sincerely,
Sarah Ritter
Founder, OptiMind Educational Strategies

Candidate signature & date

Sarah Ritter, Founder & date

Open Questions for Sarah

1. Who is the candidate, once identified?
2. What's the compensation structure and amount — hourly or salaried, and how much?
3. What's the expected schedule (days/hours)?
4. What's the target start date?
5. What's the deadline for the candidate to accept?